IN THE COUNTY.

BLACKBURN

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mollenbroek was a scene of great excitement on Oct. 13. This was Edward Meyer's seventeenth birthday and a host of friends had been invited to partake of the sumptuous supper prepared by his mother, Mrs. Mollenbroek. Invited were Mr. and Mrs. L. Bering, Fred Rubenstein and wife, Dr. Drenick, Misses Melissa, Annie and Emma Wessendorf, Lottie and Annie Sonderbrink, Emma Finkeldiel, Eric Schaefer, Hilda and Meta Jolke, Gertrude Hering, Mamie Ruhman, Messrs. Holt Daehler, Julius and August Hoke, August and Fritz Finkeldiel, Harry Pape, Chas. Fitzpatrick, Lewis, Harry and Carl Bering. Many handsome presents were received.

Charles Fitzpatrick had a narrow escape from death on Saturday. He was going to his mother's farm for some hay when Tommy Keeble, who resides upon the farm, when the horses started to run, the sudden jerk caused Chas. who was standing, to fall, catching his right ankle in the frame, and his body to be dragged upon the ground. The wagon being low, he managed to catch hold of it and in this way prevented any further injuries than a badly sprained ankle which is causing some absence from school.

The choir of the Evangelical church here accompanied the pastor, Rev. Brodbeck to Sweet Springs Sunday, after the latter held services. Choir composed of the following: Misses Edna and Meta Holke, Lottie and Annie Sonderbrink and Emma Wessendorf, Messrs. Fred Fahrnayer, Gus Hoke and Auguste Finkeldiel.
